MASSES of apple blossoms and pink roses decorated the home of W. M. Enslow in Highland Park yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, when his daughter, Miss Margaretta Gillan Lewis, became the bride of Giles Carr Courtney, son of the late Giles C. Courtney. The lights were shaded in rose color and a drape of Southern silk and pink flowers covered the windows and doorways. Rev. James E. Poindexter performed the ceremony and Winfield Coburn played the Wedding March from Lohengrin at the entry of the bride party. Atwood Lewis, a brother of the bride, sang "O, Promise Me," just before the ceremony.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who also gave her away. She wore a beautiful gown of cashmere de sole, with an overdress of white marquisette. Her veil of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and clematis. Miss Katie M. Lewis was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a charming frock of pink crepe meteor and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Beach R. Lewis of St. Louis, was the groom's best man. Mr. and Mrs. Courtney left at once for an extended wedding trip.

Unhappy in Buckingham.
The marriage of Miss Anne Elceta Boatwright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Boatwright, to Tolbert Hardy Lacy, of Rocky Mount, N. C., was celebrated at Mount Zion Baptist Church, Buckingham county, yesterday, and was one of the most attractive marriages in the history of the county. This church was built by the great-grandfather of the bride, and he was its pastor for many years.

The bride attended were Miss Amanda Pitts, of Elk Island, and Miss Helen Gray Gregory, of Richmond, in gown and white, and Miss Mary Collins, of Richmond, and Miss Alice Virginia Boatwright, sister of the bride, in embroidered net gown, over pink. The bridesmaids wore white and carried bouquets of sweet peas. The bridegroom carried a nosegay of white roses. The bride wore a gown of white over pink. The bride was a college-away gown of blue, carrying a shower of white roses and a veil of the valley.

The ushers were Dr. J. H. Mabry, of Newport News; A. J. Terrell, of Newington, and Whitaker Anderson, Reuben Hudkins, Frank L. Sevier and Fred Boatwright, of Buckingham. Dr. J. M. Mercer, of Rocky Mount, accompanied the groom.

Mrs. Fletcher J. Wright, of Fork Union, sang prior to the ceremony "For Love's Sweet Sake," by Stubbs, with accompaniment on the organ by Miss Janie Lacy, the groom's sister. Miss Lacy played for the processional the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" and for the recessional the march from "Tannhauser." During the ceremony she played "Traumerl."

Rev. R. W. Baswell, pastor of the church, officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated in palmetto leaves and Spanish moss, sent from Florida by friends of the bride, and in native evergreens, with carnations, roses and sweet peas, in white and pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacy will be at home at Rocky Mount after Easter.

New Ordinance Requires That There Be Only One Entrance to Barrooms.

POLICE SYSTEM ADOPTED

Two Women Attempt Suicide. Other Petersburg News Notes.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Spaymore Street, Petersburg, Va., April 5.

The Common Council held its monthly meeting last night, and passed upon a great deal of routine and special business. The session did not end until midnight. The City Treasurer's report showed total receipts in March of $2,140, and the City Auditor's report showed total expenditures during the month of $2,153.33. Collections of fines in the Police Court for ordinance violations amounted to $265.

No Increase in Liquor Tax.
The license tax ordinance for the year beginning May 1 was submitted by Chairman of Finance, J. A. Harrell, to the Common Council. It makes no material changes from the tax ordinance of this year. It was read section by section. When the section imposing a specific license tax for the sale of liquor was reached an effort was made to increase the tax on retailers from $300 to $500, and on small order houses from $500 to $750. The Council voted the motion down by a vote of 7 yeas to 15 noes. The ordinance was then adopted as a whole.

An ordinance submitted by Mr. Nelms was adopted, amending the present ordinance governing the sale of liquors. It provides that no liquor saloon shall have more than one entrance for patrons, which entrance shall be on the main street and on the street level floor; that there shall be no side or back entrance, nor any entrance from above or below; provided, however, that a licensed hotel or house of private entertainment may, besides the entrance on the main street, have one entrance on the ground floor from the saloon to the hotel or house of private entertainment.

Police System Adopted.
Mr. Hall, from the special committee appointed to recommend a police patrol system for the city, submitted a report recommending the adoption of the signal light system, at a cost of $5,529, or about $1,000 less than the cost of the Dean flashlight system, which had been previously recommended to the Council. The committee's report was unanimously adopted. The signal light system is an overhead wire system.

Building Regulations.
An ordinance to regulate the erection of buildings on the public streets was offered by Mr. Nelms and adopted. It provides that "no building hereafter shall be erected in the city of Petersburg upon any lot which abuts upon a public street except that front entrance shall face the street."

Board of Public Safety.
Mr. Bowie offered an ordinance creating a board of public safety for the city and defining its duties, which was referred to the Board of Public Safety. The board of public safety is composed of the Mayor, the City Engineer and the Chief of the Fire Department.

Other Matters.
Various measures looking to street improvements were introduced and passed or referred.

A request from the Ladies' Memorial Association for an appropriation of $50,000 for improvements in Blandford Cemetery was referred to the Finance Committee.

The Council refused to join the Board of Aldermen in admonishing the School Board for extravagance in spending money.

The Committee on Ordinances announced that an agreement had been made with Bernard Squire to codify the city ordinances, at a cost of $1,000, and that the work will be completed by January 1.

A resolution was introduced and referred, providing for an appropriation of $50,000 for the purpose of erecting an assembly hall and armory on the site of the High School building when the latter is abandoned for school purposes.

President Wilcox announced the appointment of W. N. Jones and R. M. Craddock as a committee of the Council to confer with committees of other bodies in connection to the establishment of a battlefield park at Petersburg.

Two young negro women—Lucinda Mason, twenty-one years old, living on Gladstone Street, and Eliza Boss, nineteen years old, living in John Allen Street, attempted to commit suicide last night by drinking laudanum. The first named woman swallowed an ounce of the drug, and the second two ounces. But for timely discovery and heroic work by Dr. W. P. Hoyer, each would have accomplished her purpose. Some disappointment about their mode of life was the cause of the attempts.

Officers Elected.
At a meeting of the board of governors of the Chamber of Commerce last evening Cleveland Wright was elected first vice-president, to succeed Hatcher Seward, recently elected president of the chamber, and E. C. Kent was elected second vice-president. The board discussed the matter of a battlefield park at Petersburg, and appointed a committee of three—Mayor Cameron, E. C. Kent and Secretary W. M. Martin—to co-operate with other committees on the subject.

Personal and Otherwise.
Miss Margaret E. Moody, who conducts one of the best known boarding houses in Petersburg, is ill at her home on Spaymore Street.

The Petersburg Benevolent Mechanic Association will meet next Monday night to finally settle the question of the erection of the proposed new seven-story association building.

Rev. E. L. Grace, D. D., of Broadus Memorial Church, Richmond, will deliver an address on Sunday afternoon next before the Baptist Sunday School Association of this city.

Rev. Father O'Farrell, pastor of St. John's Catholic Church, returned this morning from a month's trip to Florida and Cuba, much improved in health.

Two special cars, bearing the remains and friends of the late Carter W. Branch, reached the city from Richmond this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock and proceeded directly to Blandford Cemetery, where the burial took place.

This afternoon, in Warwick M. E. Church, Prince George county, Miss Mary P. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Williams, of Disputanta, was married to Melba W. Mason, of Sussex county.

Officers of Petersburg Lodge of Masons, assisted by members of other lodges, will visit Joppa Lodge, in Richmond, to-morrow night and exemplify Frederick County Man Clubbed and Seriously Injured—Assailants Recognized.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Winchester, Va., April 5.—Warrants were issued this afternoon for the arrest of nine recognized members of a gang of white caps, who are charged with riotous assault and battery upon the person of Mullen McFarland, a white married man of Frederick county, who was clubbed last night after being dragged from his bedroom. White capers broke down the door and took McFarland to a field, where he was soundly beaten and left in a precarious condition. It is alleged that McFarland's wife circulated the report that he has been giving the family ample food and fuel, which is also correct.

McFarland is guarding his house to-night and vows he will kill the first white cap who returns to attack him. Deputy Sheriff is scouring the county for other members of the gang. After the beating, the leader of the crowd came down and looking up to heaven, offered fervent prayers that McFarland may become converted and lead a better life.
